A LARGE CROWD FROM MADISON.

A Theatre Party Came up on The Valdosta Southern Last Night.

A large party of prominent young people from Madison came up last night on a special train over the Valdosta Southern road to attend the presentation of Quo Vadis at the Pine Park Opera House. The train reached the city at 7:30 o'clock and Mr. H. W. S. Blitch, of the Plant System, had an electric car ready to convey them to the Park Theatre.

The party was composed of the following: Mesdames S. A. Hineley and R. C. Dunn; Misses Agnes Parramore, Eva Thomas, Clare Hardee, Hoyt Hise-ley, Julia Dickinson, Nettie McCall, Lucy Shaffer, Pearl Morrow, Wallie Ellison, Mary Overstreet and Robbie Lines.
The gentlemen were: Messrs. Will Taylor, Will Parramore, Claude Morrow, A.
Livingston, Vans Randell, Tom Hardee, Phil. Parramore, Charles Morrow, R. V.
Dial, C. C. Carroll, Hunter Patterson, E. J. Harris, Walter Overstreet, Will Overstreet, Frank Webb and O. H. Griffin.

Members of the party expressed themselves as delighted with their trip. They were in charge of Mr. E. J. Harris from Madison here, and were chaperoned to the park by Mr. H. W. S. Blitch and Miss Klein Staten.

The members of the party were given a short reception in the Videttes armory after the play, after which they returned to their homes at Madison on the special train. —Valdosta Times, 28th.

A Cure For Lumbago.

W. C. Williamson, of Ambeest, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other remedies had failed to do." Sold by all druggists.

Effective December 1st, important changes in the Schedule and additional trains were inaugurated on the Seaboard Air Line Railway. The Florida and Metropolitan Limited through train between New York and Jacksonville via Washington and Richmond, is quickened in schedule to arrive in Jacksonville 3:50 p. m. instead of 6:10 p. m. as formerly. The New York and Florida Fast Mail, known as trains 27 and 66, will arrive at Jacksonville 9:05 a. m. instead of 9:15, while the departure will continue at 7:40 p. m. All three of these trains make connection in both directions for Brunswick, Ga., via Thalman and the Brunswick and Birmingham Railroad.

The Old Year Ball.

Davis' Opera House was the scene of the last social function of the year 1901 when the society of our town gathered to participate in a farewell ball to the old year. The Valdosta Orchestra furnished the music for the occasion and it was of the best. Elegant costumes were worn by the ladies and the gentlemen looked their handsomest. The society circles of nearby cities were well represented and the last hours of the old and the first hours of the new years were whirled away by the happy participants in the mazy whirl of the waltz and other popular dances.

To the committee in charge of the affair, Messrs. Will Parramore, Will Taylor and Claud Morrow, belongs the credit for a most pleasant evening—an evening which will be long remembered by all who were present.

State Nominations.

The Pensacola News calls attention to the fact that at the next general election in Florida nominations will be made by primary, and that candidates for three State offices, and possibly four, are among those to be chosen—a Comptroller, to fill the unexpired term of the late lamented Reynolds; a Justice of the Supreme Court, to succeed Hon. Milton H. Mabry, upon the expiration of his term, and a Railroad Commissioner to succeed Hon. John M. Bryan, whose term will soon expire. Should Hon.
Wm. B. Lamar, Attorney-General, resign that office to become a candidate for the nomination as member of Congress from the Third district, his office, (to be temporarily filled by an executive appointment) will also be in the list of nominations made in the coming primary. Nominations for Congressmen in the First and Second districts will have to be made. —Sanford Chronicle.

Painful Accident.

While engaged in home duties Tuesday afternoon Capt. A. J. Dozier, one of Madison's oldest and most respected citizens, tripped on a basket and sustained a fall which resulted in a broken arm.

Notwithstanding the intense pain Capt. Dozier walked from his place to an uptown drug store where the broken arm was set by his physician.

He is now getting on as comfortably as possible, and the accident is deeply regretted by his many friends.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got the bottle cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth to-day. —JOEL DEMONT, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by all druggists.

An Interesting Question.

From what the Leesburg Commercial says, it would seem that the Florida conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, may get a lawsuit on its hands for abandoning its college at Leesburg. The Commercial says distinctly that the conference must refund dollar for dollar to all who contributed to the location and establishment of the college at Leesburg, and that the return of the college property to the donors will not fulfil the requirements of the contract between the donors and the conference. In this connection an interesting question arises. The conference holds that it made a bad bargain with the people of Leesburg, but it stuck to it for about fifteen years. The bargain was bad for the conference, not from a moral, but from a business standpoint.
Now, the question is this: Has the conference the moral right to break the contract without the consent of the other parties thereto? If one of the most powerful representative religious bodies in Florida has the moral right to cancel what it deems a bad business transaction, what sort of lesson is it to private individuals who are daily making trades that result to their pecuniary disadvantage? —Punta Gorda Herald.

One and a Half Million Life Insurance.

One million, four hundred thousand dollars is the amount of insurance carried on the life of Frank H. Pevey, the millionaire grain dealer, who died in Chicago a few days ago after an acute attack of pneumonia. Mr. Pevey, whose wealth is estimated at $15,000,000, was one of the most prominent operators in the grain market and was president of the Pevey Grain Company of Minneapolis. His has been a remarkable career.
He began life as a clerk, but his business abilities were so marked that his rise was rapid. He originated the elevator system and was an active factor in grain speculation. Two years ago when the fluctuations of the grain market was of such a character as to alarm timid investors, Mr. Pevey to strengthen his credit, took out the policies, and to the Mutual Life Insurance Company alone, which insured him for one million. He made two annual payments of $40,000, premium. George Vanderbilt is the only person known carrying a million dollars in insurance in one company.
His death was unexpected as the physicians attending him reported yesterday that his chances for recovery were excellent.

K. of P. Officers.

At the last meeting of Madison Lodge, Knights of Pythias, officers were elected for the ensuing term and they will be installed at the next meeting of the Lodge which will be held on Monday night, 13th inst. The officers elect are as follows:

H. M. TAYLOR, C. C.
WALTER BUNTING, V. C.,
DR. E. P. MICKLE, Prelate,
W. M. BURTON, M. of W., J. E. HARDEE, K. of R. and S., W. B. DAVIS, M. of F.,
S. E. COBB, M. of E.,
S. P. Griffin, M. at A.

MARRIED AT PERRY.

Nuptials of Miss Faulkner and Mr.
Owen.

PERRY, Dec. 29.—At 7:30 o'clock of the evening of the 25th inst., in the parlor of the home of the bride, Daisy Eu-dora, the accomplished and only daughter of Judge and Mrs. T. J. Faulkner, was married to Cherrie A. Owens, of Valdosta, Ga. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present.

The bride was most tastefully attired in a gown of white mousseline, with white applique trimmings, over taffeta foundation.

The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, and the groom with best man, Hop Wilder, were met at the altar by the Rev. Mr. Wells of the Baptist church, who spoke the words that made them one.

Miss Daley is a lady of exceptionally sweet character; having been reared in a Christian home, she at a very early age had instilled those rare traits which make up the ideal Christian woman.
Mr. Owens is a young man of noble character, and of splendid business qualifications.

McLin Sustained.

Judge Malone has rendered his decision in the case of Camp & West vs.
B. E. McLin, commissioner of agriculture, in which the former seek to restrain the commissioner from turning over to the Florida Naval Stores and Commission Co. the state convicts, as per the terms of the lease made by the board of state institutions on June 28, 1901.

Judge Malone's decision denies the injunction asked for by Camp & West and sustains the demurrer entered by the commissioner, and dismisses the bill in equity.

The information was communicated by Judge Malone to Col. R. W. Williams, of counsel for Commissioner McLin yesterday afternoon. The decision, divested of legal verbiage, is based upon the following grounds:

- 1.—The proceeding was virtually a suit against the state, which cannot be sued save by its own consent.
- 2.—The bond executed by Camp & West for the performance of the alleged contract was never submitted to or approved by the board of commissioners of state institutions.
- 3.—No accrued rights have vested in the complainants—Camp & West—which an injunction could enforce.

This closes another chapter in the infamous convict lease litigation and the opening of the next will be awaited with interest, not only by those immediately interested but by the state at large. — Tallahassee Capital.

Notice.

The tax books of the town of Madison are now open. Tax payers will take due notice of same and govern themselves accordingly. Books will close February 1st. W. A. DALE, Marshal and Tax Collector.
